Dear Reporter:

This letter extends the reporting and payment deadline for lessees to comply with the federal oil and gas provisions of the Consolidated Federal Oil & Gas and Federal & Indian Coal Valuation Reform rule (2016 Valuation Rule)¹ from July 1, 2020, to October 1, 2020.

Lessees are responsible for submitting amended reports and additional payments, if applicable, under the 2016 Valuation Rule for production and sales of federal oil and gas occurring on and after January 1, 2017. Payors will remain liable for late payment interest for any underpayment from the month the royalty payment was due until paid.

The Department of the Interior has received feedback from industry stating that because this reinstatement requires system changes and re-reporting for the period January 1, 2017, through the present, additional time is necessary for industry to comply with the requirements of the 2016 Valuation Rule. Since ONRR set the July 1, 2020, deadline, the global crisis arising from the COVID-19 pandemic and resulting National Emergency has impacted many sectors of the economy, including the energy sector.

Background

On March 29, 2019, the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California² vacated ONRR's repeal of the 2016 Valuation Rule.³ By vacating the repeal, the Court reinstated the 2016 Valuation Rule, with an effective date of January 1, 2017. On October 8, 2019, the U.S. District Court for the District of Wyoming issued a partial preliminary injunction enjoining application and enforcement of the coal provisions of the 2016 Valuation Rule.⁴

ONRR issued Dear Reporter letters on June 13, 2019⁵, and November 20, 2019⁶, ultimately setting a July 1, 2020 deadline by which all reporters and payors needed to complete submission of corrected federal oil and gas reporting and payment under the 2016 Valuation Rule. This letter provides three additional months to comply with the requirements of the 2016 Valuation Rule.⁷
